

October is National Pregnancy and Infant Loss Awareness Month and is a means for us to remember the 1,000,000 babies who die each year due to pregnancy loss, stillbirth, and early infant death.

In recognition of this month, Tiny Purpose is hosting its annual

“Walk to Remember...”

Sunday, October 16, 2011

2:00pm

Trestle Park -- Adrian, MI

Trestle Park Pavilion can be found just west off of Main St. (M-52) on Hunt St. at Subway restaurant. Hunt Street will dead end at the park.

Event Schedule

1:00 Registration

2:00 Memorial walk (Trestle Park to Oakwood Cemetery)

2:30 Memorial service & balloon release

3:00 Refreshments at Trestle Park

Registration is from 1:00-2:00pm and includes participation in the walk, memorial program, a balloon to release in memory of your baby and refreshments. Registration at the event is allowed, but pre-registration by Wednesday, October 12, guarantees baby's name on signs and helps us to plan for programs, balloons and refreshments.
